QUESTIONS/ TOPICS

Please make a list of questions/ topics you would like to cover during your consultation, this will help our designer prioritize and make the most of your in-studio appointment.

SOURCING

We typically only have time to source one item during an in-studio appointment. If you're looking for multiple items, additional design time & associated design fees may apply.

Please feel free to contact us prior to your appointment with any questions regarding design fees and the in-studio appointment process.
